Fees 2026

1. Development fee

A once-off R1500 development fee, is payable when your child is accepted at the school.

2. Stationery

Stationery is included in the fees.

3. Payments of fees

General conditions:

- School fees and aftercare fees for the entire year are loaded onto your statement and the balance will reduce as yearly, quarterly or monthly payments are made.
- School fees and aftercare fees are payable strictly in advance. (Excluding ad hoc aftercare)
- School- and aftercare fees are paid together.

Payment options:

- Yearly, quarterly or monthly in advance.
- Yearly in advance qualifies for a discount if the payment is made before 28 February (see table below).
- Monthly payments are due at the end of January to the end of October.
- 10 Working days (2 weeks) are given for monthly and quarterly payments to be made. Should requests for payment/reminders be ignored, the account with amount/amounts in arrears will be handed to the school's attorneys.

Payment method:

- Direct bank deposit or electronic transfer.
- Debit orders are not arranged by Welgemoed Pre-Primary School. Should you wish to use this payment method, please arrange with your bank.

(During the holiday) per day: R135 (until 15:00), R170 (until 17:30)

Should aftercare payments be in arrears, your child will not be able to make use of aftercare.

6. Exemption of school fees

- Exemption or partial exemption from school fees will only be considered for Grade R learners. A limited number of Grade R parents can apply for exemption/part-exemption of school fees before the end of February. Please email the office at admin@welgemoedpp.co.za for the necessary forms. This is a formal process and subject to approval from the Governing Body.
- As per our policy, no aftercare fees can be exempted.
